REVENUE (VIGILANCE-VI) DEPARTMENT

G.O.Rt.No. 317

Dt.25-2-2010.

Read the following:-

1. Proceedings of the Dist. Collector, Mahaboobnagar, No.A4/7809/89, dt.16-5-1992.
2. Proceedings of the Dist. Collector, Mahaboobnagar, No.A4/6400/92, dt.20-8-1993.
3. Reprn. of Smt. Basamma, W/o Late Chandrappa, dt.NIL.
4. Govt.Memo.No.34596/Vig.VI(2)/09-1, dt.12-8-2009.
5. From the CCLA, Hyd., Lr.No.VS.III(2)/886/01, dt.23-9-09.

In the reference 1st read above, orders were issued by the District Collector, Mahaboobnagar imposing the punishment of stoppage of three annual grade increments with cumulative effect on Sri Chandrappa, formerly Deputy Mandal Revenue Officer (Civil Supplies), Kalwakurthy, Mahaboobnagar District and now expired, on the charge of misappropriation of essential commodities W/Rs.72,761 besides ordering for recovery of the said amount from the Accused Officer.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, orders were also issued by the District Collector, Mahaboobnagar imposing the punishment of dismissal from service on Sri Chandrappa, formerly Deputy Mandal Revenue Officer and now expired, on the charge of misappropriation of ration cards amount worth of Rs.14,960 besides ordering for recovery of the said amount from the Accused Officer.

3. Smt. Basamma W/o Late Sri Chandrappa submitted a representation before the Government in the reference 3rd read above, representing that her husband namely Sri Chandrappa was a revenue employee who worked as Deputy Tahsildar, put a long length of service of (32) years, fell ill suffering with paralysis and expired on 13-6-99, that as he was dismissed from service on the charge of misappropriation of sale proceeds of ration cards received from his subordinates amounting to Rs.15,470/- on 6-8-92, they could not get pensionary benefits and the immovable properties such as lands were taken to possession of Government and they were subjected to auction. She has further represented that though she had (4) children, no one is looking after her at this old age of (70) years and, therefore, requested the Government to consider her case as a special case and sanction her the compassionate allowance, under Rule-40 of Andhra Pradesh Revised Pension Rules, 1980.

4. Government after careful examination of the matter, in the light of the report of the Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Hyderabad in the reference 5th read above, have observed that totally an amount of Rs.87,721/- was recoverable from the deceased employee on account of the two disciplinary cases, that the employee had not filed any kind of appeal against the above punishment orders and the Mandal Revenue Officer, Kodangal attached the lands bearing Sy.Nos.305,306,804,823,679,951 to the extent of 4.12 Acres situated in the limits of Hasnabad Village of Kodangal Mandal towards amount recoverable from the said dismissed employee and in the meanwhile Sri Chandrappa, Deputy Tahsildar, expired on 13.6.99 leaving behind his wife Smt.Basamma, (2) sons and (2) daughters. It is also observed that the deceased employee who was dismissed from service has got two daughters and two major sons, that the daughters were married and living with their husbands, and the elder son is residing in Chittappor village of Karnataka and younger son is residing with his mother and both the sons are unemployed on account of which the petitioner is financially unsound and hence Government have decided to sanction compassionate allowance to the wife of the deceased employee as a special case, as the case deserves special consideration.

5. Therefore, Government hereby sanction two thirds of pension and gratuity which would have been admissible to the deceased employee if he had retired on invalid pension from the date of his dismissal till his death to Smt. Basamma, W/o Sri Chandrappa, formerly Deputy Mandal Revenue Officer, Kodangal Mandal, Mahaboobnagar District and now expired as compassionate allowance, as a special case under Rule-40 of Andhra Pradesh Revised Pension Rules, 1980. Government also hereby order to adjust the recoverable misappropriated amount of Rs.87,721/- (Rupees Eighty Seven Thousands and Seven Hundred and Twenty One Rupees Only) from out of the compassionate allowance now payable and balance, if any, to pay to the legal heirs of the deceased.

6. The Special Chief Secretary & Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Hyderabad shall take necessary further action in the matter accordingly and then examine the issue for sanction of Family Pension to the wife of the deceased employee in detail as per Rule 50(1)(c) of Andhra Pradesh Revised Pension Rules, 1980 and furnish proposal to the Government for taking necessary action in the matter.

7. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance (Pension.I) Department vide their U.O.No.29050/392/A1/Pen.I/10, dt.6-1-2010.
